7.4 Policy on Dividend Payment

The Company has a policy to pay dividend at not less than 40 percent of the net profit of each year, taking into account the operational results, financial structure and obligations, investment, as well as regular payment of dividend to shareholders.

In this regard, the Board of Directors may pay interim dividend to shareholders when it is of the view that the Company has sufficient profit and cash flow to pay dividend. Once the dividend payment has been made, such dividend payment shall be reported to the following shareholders' meeting.

Policy on Dividend Payment of the Subsidiaries

NECL does not have a policy on dividend payment other than that specified in Article 40 of the Articles of Association which specifies that NECL must appropriate to a reserve fund, at each dividend payment, at least one-twentieth (1/20) of the profits, until the reserve fund reaches one-tenth (1/10) of the capital of NECL. The board of directors may from time to time pay to the shareholders such interim dividends as it appears to the board of directors that NECL has sufficient profits to do so. If NECL sustains a loss, no dividend shall be paid until such loss has been made good.

BMN has a policy to pay dividend at the rate of approximately 40 percent of the net profit after deduction of legal reserves, taking into account the operational results in the accounting year of the separate financial statements as at the end of the accounting year and under the conditions of the loans agreement, subject to the investment plan, other necessities and appropriateness.
